1600 square meters of design house for your next event

Give your clients a different experience, and choose this rebuilt factory as venue for a dinner, a reception or a product launch. It is a unique location with industrial roughness in contrast with selected design brands. Seats perfectly 350 pax for dinner.

Sustainable dining by the water in the centre of Copenhagen

White walls, clean Scandinavian design and organic gourmet food; everything at this venue is a result of thorough sustainable ambition. The location by the water gives a possibility for a boat transfer. Seats up to 500 pax.

Impressive architecture at a 100 years old train garage

9000 square meters offer endless possibilities for any kind of event at this fantastic venue with a natural raw look, but still with modern facilities. The beautiful roof construction of wood and glass gives the room a very special atmosphere, keeping the space very authentic. The 4000 square meters big garden around the train garage can also be used.

BDP launches Citroen in Malmö and Copenhagen

From start September to Mid October 2010, 1100 journalists from all over to world travelled to Copenhagen and Malmö to test-drive Citroen's new electric car C0 and the new version of C4. BDP assured an unforgettable Citroen experience with the press conference at Turning Torso and the test drive starting over Øresund Bridge, combined with the beautiful landscapes of Skåne.

Copenhagen – the Gourmet Capital with the World's Best chef and restaurant

In 2010 the Danish restaurant Noma was awarded as the world's best restaurant, and in January 2011 the Danish chef Rasmus Koefoed won the gastronomic world championships, Bocuse d'Or in Lyon. Rasmus Koefoed has already won earlier the bronze and silver medal in Bocuse d'Or, and runs daily the Michelin starred restaurant Geranium in Copenhagen.
