COPENHAGEN NR 2 ON "THE LIVEABLE CITIES INDEX 2010"

The English Monocle Magazine has listed the 25 most liveable cities, and Copenhagen is on the impressive second place. Monocle Magazine points out amongst many things Copenhagen's beautiful architecture, functional design, bicycle culture, good restaurants and climate consciousness.

THE GRAND OPENING OF TIVOLI HOTEL

The 01. July the first guests were welcomed to the new theme hotel, Tivoli Hotel. With its 402 rooms and the congress center for up to 2500 people (opening the 01. October) Tivoli Hotel offers a great central venue for both small and large conferences.

DANES ARE STILL THE HAPPIEST PEOPLE ON EARTH

The US might be the richest nation, but they are not the happiest people. A new study indicates again that the Danes are the ones being most satisfied with their lives.

POVERTY WALKS – AN ALTERNATIVE CITYTOUR

If you have already seen the Little Mermaid and the Amalienborg Castle, how about having a look at another side of the town? Join a "Poverty Walk", get guided around by a homeless person, hear about the guide's street experience and get presented to the specific history, poverty and overlooked locations of Copenhagen.

COPENHAGEN – NOT ONLY BEER!

Financial Times has discovered that Copenhagen is not only Tuborg and Carlsberg, but also a city of cocktails. The British newspaper writes how Copenhagen is enjoying a golden age and is a great haven for anyone appreciating well-done cocktails.
