51% OF HOTEL ROOMS IN COPENHAGEN ARE GREEN

Copenhagen is a world leader when it comes to environmentally friendly initiatives and solutions, and tourism industry is no exception. More than half of the city's hotel rooms now hold The Green Key, The Nordic Swan Mark or The European Flower, which indicate that the hotels in question have demonstrated environmental awareness by saving on water, electricity, chemicals etc.

NEW WAYS OF TRANSPORTATION – SEGWAYS !

Why not try riding a Segway, the two-wheeled self balancing electric vehicle? Riding a Segway is something totally different of what you have ever experienced so why not try an alternative citytour or how about a teambuilding event racing on Segways? Everybody can do it; it is easy, fun and CO2 friendly!

WORLD CLASS ART IN DENMARK

There are major art exhibitions in Denmark this spring that you shouldn't miss. At Louisiana, one hour drive from Copenhagen, there is "Color in art" until the June 13th presenting works of Matisse, Van Gogh, Nolde and Kandinsky. At Arken just outside Copenhagen you can experience Juan Miro exhibition "I work as a gardener" until May 30th.

ROYAL VISIT – UNIQUE POSSIBILITY TO SEE CROWN PRINCE FREDERIK'S HOME

The Danish monarchy is the oldest in the world and probably also the most open one. This spring until May 30th you are invited to visit the future Copenhagen home of Crown Prince Frederik, Crown Princess Mary and their children Christian and Isabella.

Frederik VIII's Palace at Amalienborg Castle in Copenhagen has been undergoing extensive renovation and modernization, to make it suitable as the official residence of Denmark's future king.

BDP AT HILTON BIRTHDAY PARTY

At the yearly birthday party at Hilton Copenhagen, the theme this year was Studio 54. BDP's Ebbe Kiær won the first prize for the best outfit!

COPENHAGEN IS STILL THE NORDIC CAPITAL OF MICHELIN STARS

The Guide Michelin is out and Copenhagen has 12 restaurants with Michelin stars, restaurant NOMA being the best one with 2 stars. Restaurant AOC received its first star this year. Congratulations!

BDP will be present at the following travel fairs:
TUR MESSEN, Gothenburg, at Wonderful Copenhagen Stand
MEEDEX, Paris, at VisitDenmark Stand
IMEX, Frankfurt, at VisitDenmark Stand
